Pamela Carey Named Client Services Specialist at e-LYNXX Corporation

CHAMBERSBURG, PA – Pamela Carey of Fayetteville, Pennsylvania, has been named client services specialist for Government Print Management, a service offering of e-LYNXX Corporation, the leading print management firm in the United States.

"Pam provides guidance, training and ongoing assistance to our clients participating in government print work that fills their open capacity to improve their profitability. Most of this work comes through the U. S. Government Printing Office (GPO)," said Maxine Gindlesperger, chief administrative officer of e-LYNXX. "The in-depth industry knowledge that Pam provides is invaluable as she also supports our internal team who evaluates GPO job specifications, processes bids submissions, prepares reports, and monitors awards".

Government Print Management is the e-LYNXX division that works with print suppliers to gain GPO and other government work. The most active printers that support GPO are clients of Government Print Management.

Carey joined e-LYNXX in 1994 after having been with McGraw-Hill in purchasing. She began as a market development advisor at e-LYNXX and was then promoted to support sales and client services for Government Print Management.

She is a graduate of Waynesboro Senior High School in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania.
