Sara Rhine Named Client Services Specialist at American Print Management

CHAMBERSBURG, PA – Sara Rhine of Orrstown, Pennsylvania, has been named client services specialist for American Print Management, a division of e-LYNXX Corporation, the leading print management firm in the United States.

"Sara provides our clients critical support that enhances their print procurement capabilities," said Michael Jackson, chief operating officer of e-LYNXX. "She works closely with our North American print buying clients to ensure that they are obtaining the best price, quality and delivery for complex print projects. Her print industry and customer service expertise enable her to assist with job specification development, supplier identification and change order control which helps our clients save about 40% compared to their historical prices."

American Print Management is the e-LYNXX division that works with print buying organizations to reduce their hard-dollar costs for direct mail, marketing materials, commercial print, labels and product packaging. Behind the scenes, Rhine and other e-LYNXX print and client services specialists are part of a comprehensive solution that also includes e-LYNXX's proprietary communications and workflow system and patented business methods.

Rhine joined e-LYNXX in 2008 after having been with Eldorado Stone as an inventory specialist. She has been a pre-press technician at Phoenix Color Corporation where she also worked in the purchasing and inventory control departments. A native of Spring Run, Pennsylvania, Rhine graduated from Franklin County Career and Technical Center with a certificate in graphic arts.
